

Animals all around the world desperately need our protection

And protecting animals starts with people just like you.

©World Animal Protection

With your support, we'll go where animal suffering is most far-reaching and animal cruelty is most severe and bring relief and lasting change.

World Animal Protection will work tirelessly to create lasting change for animals all over the world, including:

- bears imprisoned in the bear bile trade;
- farm animals and pets caught up in disasters;
- farm animals living in stressful and poor conditions;
- dogs trapped and killed due to fear of rabies.

You can provide a better life for animals everywhere, right now.
